The Third Sunday in Lent

March 7, 2010

Welcome

If you are visiting our church today, we welcome you to our worship service and Christian community. Please find the registration book in the foyer of the church and help us serve you better by leaving your name and contact information. We promise to keep this information confidential and only use it for personal contact with you and your family. Please join us downstairs for coffee after this morning's service.

We have Christian education classes for all ages which meet after the service at 10:50 AM. Please take the time to sign our guestbook in the foyer before you leave today. Today our parish groups will meet, so there will be no evening service to-night. Enjoy the fellowship and rest that the Lord grants us on this day!

If you are unfamiliar with our form of worship, please feel free to speak with one of the Pastors or Elders. We have resources that will help you understand the biblical rationale for why we worship the way we do. Visit our website for articles, essays, and other helpful information on our worship and life at Providence: www.providencestl.com.

The Lord's Supper is observed every Sunday as the climax of covenant renewal worship. We invite to the Lord's Table all those who are baptized disciples of Jesus Christ, under the authority of Christ and his body, the Church. By eating the bread and wine with us as a visitor, you are acknowledging to the elders of this local church that you are in covenant with God as an active member of a congregation in which the Gospel is faithfully confessed, taught, and believed. If you have any doubt about your participation, please speak to one of the elders or the pastor before or after the service. Note: The middle circle of cups in each tray contains grape juice, the larger outer ring contains wine. (The grape juice has a darker color than the wine.)

The Simple Cross (Front Cover)

During Lent this year we will display a simple, unadorned cross on the front cover of our bulletins. This will remind us of God the Son's climactic act of service for humanity. He allowed his arms to be stretched out on the cross bar, and with his feet they were nailed to the tree. Thus he voluntarily gave himself up to death for the sins of his people.

†Hymn "A mighty Fortress is our God"

1 A might-y For-tress is our God, A trust-y Shield and Weap - on;
2 With might of ours can naught be done, Soon were our loss ef - fect - ed;
3 Tho' dev - ils all the world should fill, All ea - ger to de - vour us,
4 The Word they still shall let re - main Nor an - y thanks have for it;

He helps us free from ev - 'ry need That hath us now o'er-tak - en.
But for us fights the Val - iant One, Whom God Him-self e - lect - ed.
We trem-ble not, we fear no ill, They shall not o - ver - pow'r us.
He's by our side up - on the plain With His good gifts and Spir - it.

The old e - vil Foe Now means dead - ly woe;
Ask ye, Who is this? Je - sus Christ it is,
This world's prince may still Scowl fierce as he will,
And take they our life, Goods, fame, child, and wife,

Deep guile and great might Are his dread arms in fight;
 Of Sab - a - oth Lord, And there's none oth - er God;
 He can harm us none, He's judged; the deed is done;
 Let these all be gone, They yet have noth - ing won;

On earth is not his e - - - qual.
 He holds the field for - ev - - - er.

†Salutation & Responsive Scripture

In the Name of the Father, and the Son and the Holy Spirit

Amen!

Matthew 28:19

The Lord be with you!

Ruth 2:4

And also with you!

Let us fix our eyes on Jesus,

Hebrews 12:2

The author and perfecter of our faith,

Who for the joy set before him endured the cross,

Despising its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.

†Pastor: Let us pray to the Lord:

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, you make the minds and hearts of your faithful to be of one will; therefore grant to your people that we may together love what you command and desire what you promise, that among the many changes of this age our hearts may be fixed where true joys are to be found; through Jesus Christ, your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, age after age. Amen!

Purification

†Pastor: Brothers and sisters in Christ, let us humbly confess our sins to God our Father, using the words of Psalm 51:1-12

Have mercy on me, O God,

According to your steadfast love;

According to your abundant mercy

Blot out my transgressions.

Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity,

And cleanse me from my sin!

For I know my transgressions,

And my sin is ever before me.

Against you, you only, have I sinned

And done what is evil in your sight

So that you may be justified in your words

And blameless in your judgment.

Behold I was brought forth in iniquity,

And in sin did my mother conceive me.

Behold you delight in truth even in the womb,

You even teach me wisdom in hidden places.

Purge me with hyssop

And I shall be clean;

Wash me,

And I shall be whiter than snow.

Let me hear joy and gladness;

Let the bones that you have broken rejoice!

Hide your face from my sins,

And blot out all of my iniquities.

Cre - ate in me a clean heart, O God, and re - new a right

The first line of musical notation is in G major (one flat) and 3/4 time. It features a treble and bass clef. The melody is in the treble clef, and the bass line is in the bass clef. The lyrics are: "Cre - ate in me a clean heart, O God, and re - new a right".

spir - it with-in me. Cast me not a-way from Thy pres-ence, and

The second line of musical notation continues the melody and bass line. The lyrics are: "spir - it with-in me. Cast me not a-way from Thy pres-ence, and".

take not Thy Ho - ly Spir - it from me. Re-store un-to me the joy of

The third line of musical notation concludes the piece. The lyrics are: "take not Thy Ho - ly Spir - it from me. Re-store un-to me the joy of".

Thy sal - va - tion; and up-hold me with Thy free spir-it. A - men.

†Pastor: Now lift up your heads and hear the good news. . .

Ascension

†Pastor: Lift up your hearts!

We lift them up to the Lord!

†Let us give thanks to the Lord our God!

It is proper and right to do so.

†Truly it is proper, right, and beneficial, that we should at all times and in all places, give thanks and praise to you, O Lord, holy Father, almighty and everlasting King. Therefore, with angels and archangels and all the company of heaven, and with the church on earth, we praise and magnify your glorious Name, evermore praising you and singing...

Trinity Hymnal

†The Gospel Reading: Luke 11:14-26

This is the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ!

Praise be to you, O Christ!

†We Confess our Faith: The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible.

And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God, begotten of his Father before all worlds: God of God, Light of Light, very God of very God, begotten, not made; being of one substance with the Father, by whom all things were made:

Who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven, and was incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the virgin Mary, and was made man; and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate. He suffered and was buried; and the third day he rose again according to the Scriptures, and ascended into heaven, and sits on the right hand of the Father.

And he shall come again with glory to judge both the living and the dead whose kingdom shall have no end.

And I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, and Giver of Life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son together is worshipped and glorified; who spoke by the prophets.

And I believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. I acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. And I look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen!

Sermon: DO THIS AS MY MEMORIAL

LXVII. EXPOSITION OF THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. LUKE

†We Recite God's Holy Standard for Living Romans 12:1-21

I appeal to you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice,

Holy and acceptable to God, which is our fitting service.

Do not be conformed to this age,

But be transformed by the renewal of your mind.

That by testing you may discern what is the will of God,

What is good and acceptable and mature.

For by the grace given to me I say to everyone among you not to think of himself more highly than he ought,

But to think with sober judgment, each according to the measuring rod of faith God has provided.

For as in one body we have many members,
And the members do not all have the same function,
So we, though many, are one body in Christ,
And individually members of one another.

Having gifts that differ according to the grace given us,
Let us use them.

Let love be genuine. Abhor what is evil;
Hold fast to what is good.

Love one another with brotherly affection;
Outdo one another in showing honor.

Do not be slothful in zeal,
Be fervent in the Spirit, serve the Lord.

Rejoice in hope, be patient in tribulation,
Be constant in prayer.

Contribute to the needs of the saints,
And seek to show hospitality.

Bless those who persecute you;
Bless and do not curse them.

Rejoice with those who rejoice,
Weep with those who weep.

Live in harmony with one another; Do not be haughty
But associate with the lowly and never be conceited.

Repay no one evil for evil,
But give thought to do what is honorable in the sight of all.

Beloved, never avenge yourselves,
But give place to the wrath of God.

For it stands written:
“Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord”

To the contrary, “if your enemy is hungry, feed him;
If he is thirsty, give him something to drink.

For by doing so you will heap burning coals on his head.”
Do not be conquered by evil, but conquer evil with good.

†A Lenten Prayer

(Tune of Trinity Hymnal #7)

1. Lord, who throughout these forty days
For us did fast and pray,
Teach us with you to mourn our sins,
And close by you to stay.

2. As you with Satan did contend
And did the vict'ry win,
O give us strength in you to fight,
In you to conquer sin.

3. As you did hunger and did thirst,
So teach us, gracious Lord,
To die to self and so to live
By your most Holy Word.

4. Abide with us, that through this life
Of suff'ring and of pain
An Easter of unending joy
We may at last attain.

The Tribute Offering

We Offer Ourselves Through Tithes and Offerings
Offertory

Lamb of God most holy!
Who on the cross didst suffer,
Patient still and lowly,
Thyself to scorn didst offer;
Our sins by thee were taken,
Or hope had us forsaken:
Have mercy on us, O Jesu!

New Sunday School Class Continues Today: Introduction to Providence Presbyterian Church. Today we will continue our new adult Sunday school class designed to introduce (and re-introduce) our church's life and ministry. This morning Pastor Meyers will be leading a discussion on babies and baptisms in the church.

Men of the Covenant - All Providence men are invited to a Men of the Covenant discussion at Monte Shield's house on March 17, starting at 7 PM. Feel free to invite your neighbors or friends!

Basketball Tournament - On Saturday, March 20 at 10 AM there will be a men's basketball tournament on the church parking lot. Players should be 14 or older. Bring your own food, drinks and chair. If you are interested and want more information, see Allan Wamsley. Sign up deadline is March 14.

Financial Information for Providence & Resurrection - The fiscal year for our budget runs from May 2009 through April 2010. Here is the year-to-date income and expenses as of February 28, 2010, for the combined churches:

• Income: $390,000.70 • Expenses: $417,899.79 • Deficit: $27,000.09

Day Light Savings - Don't forget to set your clocks forward on Saturday night... or you'll sleep through morning worship!

Memory Listeners - will hear our Covenant children recite their catechism questions and scripture verses next Sunday. Please work with your child this week so that he/she will give a good recitation!

The Lord's Service Explained

Lenten Season

What does Lent mean? The word "Lent" comes from the Middle English lente ("spring") and from the Old English lengten ("to lengthen"), referring to the time of lengthening daylight from Christmas (around the Winter solstice) to Easter (Spring equinox). The Lenten season lasts 40 days, beginning with Ash Wednesday (February 17). In anticipation of the great Paschal mystery (the resurrection of Jesus celebrated on Easter Sunday) we are encouraged to examine ourselves anew in the person and work of Jesus Christ. We follow his example and seek for forty days to wage a more earnest struggle against the world, the flesh, and the devil. Our desire in this is increased sanctification and growth in Christian maturity and obedience.

At the heart of any worthy Lenten observance is a cultivated attitude of repentance. A true repentance means a genuine change in heart and mind, a change of disposition where ever in our lives we need to return to God. That is why true repentance and a true Lent can never be satisfied with silly little "fasts" from trivial things like chocolate or TV. On the other hand, repentance is not morbid introspection or a "guilt trip" in which we become bound up in ourselves, turned inward to the point of unhealthy despair. Rather, it has to do with God, who is both holy and compassionate. Therefore, Christian repentance always means faith in God, trusting him, responding to his grace. That is why whatever guilt or sorrow we may feel does not crush us. For we know and trust his goodness toward us.

The color for Lent is purple or violet—a rich color made with the costliest dyes in the ancient world. It appropriately symbolizes deep, heartfelt, and therefore costly repentance. Lent is not merely a time to remember and think about the history of our Lord's suffering and death, but is intended primarily as an opportunity for intense self-examination and repentance, even fasting (Luke 5:34-35). The high point of Lent is reached on Good Friday, when we remember that our sins crucified Christ. In the words of Johann Heermann's great hymn, "Who was the guilty? Who brought this upon thee? Alas, my treason, Jesus, hath undone thee. 'Twas I, Lord Jesus, I it was denied thee: I crucified thee" (Trinity Hymnal #179). Lenten hymns can be found in the Trinity Hymnal #171-196.
