Pentecost Season

Welcome

If you are visiting our church today, we welcome you to our worship service and Christian community. Please find the registration book in the foyer of the church and help us serve you better by leaving your name and contact information. We promise to keep this information confidential and only use it for personal contact with you and your family. Please join us downstairs for coffee after this morning's service.

If you are unfamiliar with our form of worship, please feel free to speak with one of the Pastors or Elders. We have resources that will help you understand the biblical rationale for why we worship the way we do. Visit our website for articles, essays, and other helpful information on our worship and life at Providence: www.providencestl.com.

The Lord's Supper is observed every Sunday as the climax of covenant renewal worship. We invite to the Lord's Table all those who are baptized disciples of Jesus Christ, under the authority of Christ and his body, the Church. By eating the bread and wine with us as a visitor, you are acknowledging to the elders of this local church that you are in covenant with God as an active member of a congregation in which the Gospel is faithfully confessed, taught, and believed. If you have any doubt about your participation, please speak to one of the elders or the pastor before or after the service. Note: The middle circle of cups in each tray contains grape juice, the larger outer ring contains wine. (The grape juice has a darker color than the wine.)

Holy Trinity Diagram (Front Cover)

No symbol can adequately comprehend the richness of the reality and abundant life of our Triune God. The shield on the front cover depicts something of the Unity in Trinity and Trinity in Unity that is the living and true God in whom we trust. At the center of the circle is Deus (Latin for "God"). Reading out from the center along the three spokes the unity of the Godhead is represented: Deus est Pater = God is the Father and the Father is God, Deus est Filius = God is the Son and the Son is God, Deus est Spiritus Sanctus = God is the Holy Spirit and the Holy Spirit is God. Reading around the circumference of the circle the distinctions between the Persons are noted: Pater non est Filius = The Father is not the Son, Filius non est Spiritus Sanctus = The Son is not the Holy Spirit, Spiritus Sanctus non est Pater = The Holy Spirit is not the Father.

Welcome & Announcements - Pastor Jeffrey Meyers

Silent Preparation

Call to Worship: Psalm 98:1-3

†Psalm 98 "Sing to the Lord, a new song"

Pastor Jeffrey Meyers

Anglo-Genevan Psalter

1543/Geneva, 1551

1. Sing to the LORD, a new song voic-ing,
For might-y won-ders He has done.
His right hand and His arm most ho-ly
The vic-to-ry for Him have won.
The LORD dis-played His just sal-va-tion;
His vin-di-ca-tion He has shown,
Re-veal-ing to the hea-then na-tions
That judg-ment is-sues from His throne.

He has remembered all his mercy, his faithfulness to Israel.
The ends of earth have seen his glory; in victory did He excel.
Now make a joyful noise before Him; O all the earth, His praises sing!
With loud acclaim let all adore Him and let the joyful anthems ring!

Join to the harp your glad rejoicing; A psalm of adoration sing,
With trumpet and with cornet voicing your joyful praise to God the King.

Let oceans roar with all their fullness, the world and all that dwell therein.
Acclaim the Lord's great power with boldness; exalt Him ever and again.

Let all the streams in joyous union now clap their hands and praise accord,
The mountains join in glad communion and leap with joy before the Lord.
He comes, He comes to judge the peoples in righteousness and equity;
He will redeem the world from evil and righteous shall his judgment be!

†Salutation & Responsive Scripture

Pastor: In the Name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit!

Congregation: Amen! Matthew 28:19

The Lord be with you! Ruth 2:4

And also with you!

Our help is in the name of Jesus, Psalm 124:8

Who made heaven and earth!

†Pastor: Let us pray to the Lord:

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, you sent your Holy Spirit to be the life and light of your Church. Open our hearts to the riches of your grace, that we may bring forth the fruit of the Spirit in love, joy, and peace; through Jesus Christ your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, age after age. Amen!

Purification

†Pastor: Beloved in the Lord! Let us draw near with a true heart, and confess our sins unto God our Father, asking him, in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ, to grant us forgiveness.

Almighty God, our Maker and Redeemer, we poor sinners confess to you, that we are by nature sinful and unclean, and that we have sinned against you by thought, word, and deed. Therefore we flee for refuge to your infinite mercy, seeking and imploring your grace, for the sake of our Lord Jesus Christ.

O most merciful God, since you have given your only-begotten Son to die for me, have mercy on me, and for his sake grant me remission of all my sins; and by your Holy Spirit increase in me true knowledge of you and of your will, and true obedience to your Word, that by your grace I may come to everlasting life; through Jesus Christ my Lord. Silent Prayer.

†Pastor: Now lift up your heads and hear the good news!

Our heavenly Father, in his great mercy, has given his only Son to die for you, and for his sake forgives you all your sins; so as Christ's minister and in his authority, I declare to you that all of your sins are forgiven, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

The Rite of Christian Baptism

Scripture Reading: Romans 6:1-6

Parental Vows: Lane & Christine Greeno

Do you acknowledge your child's need of the cleansing blood of Jesus Christ, and the renewing grace of the Holy Spirit?

Do you claim God's covenant promises in her behalf, and do you look in faith to the Lord Jesus Christ for her salvation, as you do for your own?

Do you now present this child to be baptized into the Christian Faith, and promise, in humble reliance upon divine grace, that you will endeavor to set before her a godly example, that you will pray with her and for her, that you will teach her the doctrines of our holy faith, and that you will strive, by all means of God's appointment, to bring her up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord?

Congregational Vows

Do you, members of this congregation and also members of the Body of Christ outside of this local church, undertake this responsibility assisting the parents in the Christian nurture of this child?

O come, ye servants of the LORD,
And praise his holy name;
From early morn to setting sun
His might on earth proclaim.

His laws are just and glad the heart,
He makes his mercies known;
Ye princes, come, ye people, too,
And bow before his throne.

† Prayer for the Church

Almighty God, you have taught us to pray not only for ourselves but for all men: Hear us as we pray for others, in the Name of Jesus Christ our Lord. For your holy Church on earth; for her ministers, elders, deacons, that all who love the Savior may love him truly and serve him faithfully:

We ask You to hear us, O Lord.

For all who do not know the Gospel of your love in Jesus Christ, that you would be pleased to gather them into your fold:

We ask You to hear us, O Lord.

For your missionaries, especially those known to and supported by us, that they may cause your light to shine in the dark places of the earth:

We ask You to hear us, O Lord.

For our country, for our President and others in authority, that you would guide them in your wisdom:

We ask You to hear us, King of Kings.

For the poor, the exploited, and those too weak to defend themselves from powerful oppressors, especially the women and unborn children abused, injured, and even murdered by the abortion industry in our country:

We ask You to hear us, gracious Lord.

For all who are in sickness, sorrow, and trouble, that you would comfort and sustain them:

We ask You to hear us, O Lord!

For the glorious company of the Apostles, prophets, and martyrs, and for the pleasant fellowship of the faithful in all ages:

We ask You to hear us, O Lord!

Thank You Notes

Thank You All -- Dottie Devlin and the Hoovers, on behalf of the entire Devlin family, wish to extend grateful thanks for the overwhelming show of love and support which the family has received during George's hospital stay and after his homegoing. We thank our pastors, elders, deacons, women in the church, choir, and the entire congregation for your many visits, meals, flowers, cards, calls, emails, and other expressions of sympathy. We have indeed been upheld by your love and we especially thank you for your outpouring of support at the memorial service on Sunday evening. One of the out-of-town visitors, a long-time friend of the family, remarked that it was the most spiritual service he has ever attended. We praise God for the witness which all of you have borne to the love and Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ.

We, the Werkema family, would like to express our sincere appreciation for your loving concern shown to us in the loss of our son, brother and uncle. The services led by Pastor Joshua Anderson in the morning and Pastor Jeffrey Meyers at the memorial service were uplifting and honoring for the Tim we loved and Jesus Christ his Savior. The music from the congregation, choir and organ was the music that Tim (and we) love. We're thankful for the extra effort and practice that Bill Hoover and the choir put forth. The many remembrances of Tim spoken, both publically and privately to so many of us, were very comforting and will not be forgotten. The food and fellowship after the memorial service, especially facilitated by your wonderful ladies, was also much appreciated. The flowers from congregation and choir were beautiful. We are very thankful that Tim experienced the 'fellowship of the saints' in such an environment for so many years. We have received many condolences in the form of cards and notes for which we are grateful. Sincerely, in Christ, Carolyn and Milton Werkema

Dear Providence Church Members, Thank you for your kindness during our stay in St Louis. I loved and cherish all your stories of Tim. I am so thankful that because of your sharing these stories they are now a part of my memories of Tim. I have to be completely honest I was not understanding of having Tim's funeral in St Louis. I felt that it should be at home in Minneapolis. I was wrong. Tim loved St Louis and he especially loved his family at Providence. I was so concerned that he was not surrounded by people that loved him. Again I was wrong. He was able to love all of you at Providence and to be loved by you. You can't imagine how much comfort that brings me. The morning service on Sunday brought so much joy to my heart. Thank you, Pastor Josh. I will forever remember your sermon and message. Pastor Meyers, thank you for all your support during this time. The funeral service was exactly what Tim would have wanted. A celebration of his life here and in heaven! To all the members that donated food and their time for the reception after, a big thank you. Tim always liked a good party with great food. Thank you doesn't begin to describe my gratitude to all you at Providence. I think of you daily and always smile. — Amanda Engelson (Tim's youngest sister, the only one that doesn't look like him) engelson@frontiernet.net

The Lord's Service Explained

The Opening Trinitarian Confession

After the opening hymn the minister proclaims: "In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit." To which the people respond with a hearty, "Amen!" Why do we say this every week?

For one thing, we are carefully identifying ourselves and our worship as Christian. As baptized believers we bear the Name of Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. This is the God we worship. This is the God under whose authority and in whose presence we live and die. This is our Lord who serves us in worship. We don't trust in or worship some generic "god." We praise the true God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

The Bible clearly admonishes the faithful: "whatever you do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through Him. (Col. 3:17; also Eph. 2:18; 1 Cor. 12:3). The liturgy includes this right up front so as to insure that we remember that everything that happens in the service comes under the sign of our Three-Personed God. We solemnly and publicly call God and the world to witness that we are "gathered together" in his Name (Matt. 18:20) and in that Name alone we offer our prayers, praise, and thanksgiving (John 16:23).

Give careful consideration to the fundamentally trinitarian nature of our worship as a whole. We don't simply say the Name of Father, Son, and Holy Spirit at the beginning of the service. Although we cannot be reminding everyone of this at every point in the worship service, nevertheless, we should always remember that Christian worship must be explicitly trinitarian in content and shape.

James B. Torrance says it well, describing two views of worship:

A unitarian view that worship is what we, religious people, do to try to please God, and a trinitarian one, where worship is the gift of grace to participate through the Spirit in the incarnate Son's communion with the Father—the way of joy and peace and confidence. The church which takes her eyes off Jesus Christ, the only mediator in worship, is on the road to becoming apostate. There is no more urgent need in our churches today than to recover the trinitarian nature of grace—that it is by grace alone, through the gift of Jesus Christ in the Spirit that we can enter into and live a life of communion with God our Father" (Worship, Community & the Triune God of Grace [Downers Grove, Ill: InterVarsity Press, 1996], p. 59).

We have access to the Father through Jesus Christ in one Spirit (Eph. 2:18). The Spirit enables us as a congregation to draw near to the Father through the Son. That's what's happening this morning. You are graciously being drawn into the personal relations between Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
